

About Christopher Paul

Accomplished entertainer and recording artist, Christopher Paul, delivers both song and message to a variety of audiences. He has over thirty years experience on stage with performances in front of audiences as large as 35,000.

Chris's music is heard on a global scale with two released instrumental albums and a collaborative work with Warner Brothers Records. He is currently working on a vocal, spiritual album for future release. In addition to his engaging performances, his words of encouragement to follow your dreams regardless of physical limitations will touch your heart.

He returned to his musical career after a disabling injury in 2000, motivating others to seek their own gifts and passions. He was recently profiled in Low Country Monthly and Hilton Head Monthly Magazines as one of the "25 Most Intriguing People" in the region.

Since relocating from the high country of Boulder, Colorado to the low country of South Carolina in 2005, Chris has been a favorite in the area steadily performing at various venues and events. With a soulful voice and finger-style guitar performance, he moves his audience into singing, reflecting, and dancing to a wide variety of musical genres.
